Chairman
My Everest
Via Gramsci 12
Rivolta D'adda CR, 26027
Italy

Dear Ms. Rozzoni:

At the recommendation of the fund advisors, we are pleased to award My Everest a grant of $4,707.00 from the LinkedIn For Good Fund, an advised fund of Silicon Valley Community Foundation.

This LIFG Foundation Innovation grant is for Pancreatic research. Please sign, date, and return the attached grant agreement to the attention of the person at the address listed on the grant agreement as soon as possible. Once we receive the signed agreement, we will forward the payment to you.

The foundation will require detailed reporting on the expenditures and project activities related to this grant. A final report form is enclosed.

On behalf of LinkedIn For Good Fund and Silicon Valley Community Foundation, we appreciate the work of your organization and are pleased to support your efforts.

Sincerely,

Anticipated Project Outcomes:

Special Conditions:

Grantee agrees that all grant funds will be used exclusively for activities conducted outside the United States of America. (Note to grantee: If any of the funds are intended to be used to pay for activities within the United States, do not sign this agreement. Instead, please contact the community foundation so we can determine if tax withholding may be required under United States tax law, or whether any exceptions to withholding are available.)

Grantee does not knowingly employ or have links to any entities or individuals known to support terrorism or to be in violation of US Sanctions. In addition, Grantee is prohibited from using the grant to make payments to officials for the purpose of obtaining or retaining business with, or directing business to, any company, organization, entity, or person, within the meaning of the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act. Additionally, by entering this agreement, Grantee affirms as a material element of this agreement that the grant is not related to the funding, promotion or procurement of terrorism or banned activities or of any business interest on behalf of any third party including any known terrorists or Specially Designated Nationals and that the grant itself is solely limited to the stated purposes of the grant.

Reporting Requirements

Silicon Valley Community Foundation requires progress reports at specified dates. Please note that future grant requests will not be considered if a grantee has failed to submit a required report. Please submit the following reports using the forms enclosed:

Interim report: Due: January 31, 2018

Final report: Due: August 31, 2018

Record Maintenance and Inspection

Your organization must maintain records of receipts and expenditures and make your books and records available to the community foundation for inspection at reasonable times. The community foundation may monitor and conduct an evaluation of operations under this grant, which may include a visit by community foundation personnel to observe your organization's program, discuss the program with your organization's personnel and review financial and other records and materials connected with the activities financed by this grant.

Separate Fund

All community foundation grant funds received by your organization must be maintained in a separate fund dedicated to the charitable purposes described in this agreement. Such a separate fund may be either (1) a separate bank account restricted to the described charitable purposes, or (2) a separate bookkeeping account (limited to the described charitable purposes) maintained as part of your financial records.

Prohibited Activities

So that the community foundation may comply with the tax laws of the United States, it is understood that community foundation grant funds will not be used for any of the following purposes:

- A. To carry on propaganda, or otherwise attempt to influence any legislation (within the meaning of Section 4945(d)(1) of the United States Internal Revenue Code);
- B. To influence the outcome of any specific public election or to carry on, directly or indirectly, any voter registration drive (within the meaning of Section 4945(d)(2) of the United States Internal Revenue Code);
- C. To make grants to individuals for travel, study or any other similar purposes (such as scholarships, fellowships or grants for research), unless such grants satisfy the requirements of Section 4945(g) of the United States Internal Revenue Code;
- D. To make any grant to any other organization (other than to public charities or exempt operating foundations) which does not comply with the requirements of Section 4945(d)(4) of the United States Internal Revenue Code; or
- E. To undertake any activity for any purpose other than for religious, charitable, scientific, literary or educational purposes.

If you have further questions regarding activities that are not permitted, please contact the community foundation.

Hold Harmless

Grantee hereby irrevocably and unconditionally agrees, to the fullest extent permitted by law, to defend, indemnify and hold harmless the community foundation, its officers, directors, trustees, employees, and agents from and against any and all claims, liabilities, losses and expenses (including reasonable attorney's fees) directly, indirectly, wholly or partially arising from or in connection with the grant, the application of funds furnished pursuant to the grant, the program or project funded or financed by the grant or in any way relating to the subject of this Agreement. This paragraph shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

Acknowledgement of Grant Support:

Please acknowledge Silicon Valley Community Foundation’s support of your program in publications such as newsletters, program activity announcements and in all media coverage. We suggest you use the following wording: “This project has been made possible in part by a grant from the LinkedIn For Good Fund, an advised fund of Silicon Valley Community Foundation.”

By signing below My Everest acknowledges that this grant agreement is now the contract with Silicon Valley Community Foundation detailing the purpose(s) of the grant, including what activities are supported by this grant and how to report on those activities. Please inform the community foundation if there are changes in agency personnel who are important to the administration of the grant, or if the grant funds cannot be expended for the purpose or in the time period described in the proposal. Grantee may not use the funds in any way other than as described in the proposal unless the grantee receives written permission from the community foundation. Grantee shall repay to Silicon Valley Community Foundation any portion of the amount granted that is not used for the purpose of this grant. If funds remain at the end of the grant period, grantee must contact the community foundation staff person noted above.

Report Guidelines

Silicon Valley Community Foundation wants to learn from you about your progress on the program funded by the community foundation. A written final report signed by an appropriate officer of your organization must be furnished to the community foundation within thirty (30) days of the close of grant period indicated in your grant agreement. If your organization's fiscal year ends during the grant period, you are also required to submit an interim report within thirty (30) days of the fiscal year end. We have anticipated the due date(s) for your report(s).

Your report(s) must contain two parts: a narrative account and a financial account of what was accomplished with the grant funds during the period covered by the report.

- A. Narrative Account: The narrative account should provide a detailed description of what was accomplished by the grant. Please include
- How the program's innovative approach has helped reach the organization's mission.
 - The impact the program has on the people and the community served (include number directly served by the program).
 - Plan to scale the funded program after the grant period (if relevant).
 - Engagement or volunteering activities with LinkedIn employees (if relevant).
 - Success story that LinkedIn For Good Foundation can use for PR purposes.
- B. Financial Account: The financial account should provide a financial statement reporting, in U.S. dollars, all expenditures of the grant funds and any income earned on those funds.

Please note that your grant agreement advises you that report(s) are required by Silicon Valley Community Foundation and that future grant requests will not be considered if a grantee has failed to submit required report(s).

Please return this page along with the report to the community foundation as your completed report.
